2. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact
3. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse
4. Sexual Exploitation
5. Sexual Harassment
6. Relationship Violence
7. Stalking
8. Retaliation

MANDATORY REPORTERS are required to report all incidents of aforementioned Prohibited Conduct to the Title IX Coordinator within 24-hours of learning of the alleged misconduct.

MANDATORY REPORTERS cannot promise confidentiality and therefore must report all known incidents to the Office Title IX Compliance. The University is obligated to review every incident of gender-based harassment and violence.

MANDATORY REPORTERS must report misconduct within 24-hours to the Office of Title IX Compliance through one of the following options are available:

- Online at titleix.appstate.edu
- Email at titleix@appstate.edu
- Mail to: ASU Box 32053
- Phone at 828.262.2144

Please provide names of those involved, their contact information, and relevant details regarding the Prohibited Conduct.

By reporting the Prohibited Conduct, Appalachian can provide accommodations and support while also ensuring the safety and wellbeing of our campus community. We work systematically to address the prohibited conduct, redress its effects, and prevent its recurrence.

QUICK NOTE ON BEING A MANDATED REPORTER - Under North Carolina Law, any person who has cause to suspect that any juvenile is abused, neglected, or dependent or has died as a result of maltreatment must make a report to the appropriate Child Protective Services Agency.
